Grand Auction Sale

OF Beautiful Suburban Lots IN Woodland Heights, Va.

The Southside Land and Improvement Company will offer at public auction, at 12 m., on MAY 20, 1890,

A LIMITED NUMBER OF LOTS IN WOODLAND HEIGHTS, which adjoins the city of Manchester, Va., and opposite the city of Richmond.

THE PROPERTY is admirably located on a high plateau on the James river above, and overlooking both cities, the view of which presents a most pleasing and beautiful picture to the spectator.

The lots are high and well drained, and will soon be reached by a first-class electric railway, now being constructed, which will run through the cities of Richmond and Manchester and the whole length of Woodland Heights to Forest Hill, the most picturesque and attractive park in this country.

These lots are 21x148 feet, fronting on wide avenues and running back to 14-foot alleys.

Immense sums of money have been made by parties buying lots in various parts of Virginia, where cities are yet to be built and exist only in imagination, whereas these lots are in sight of upwards of 100,000 people, with their numerous manufacturing already established.

The Southside Land and Improvement Company therefore does not hesitate to recommend them as a good solid investment, with a most magnificent speculative value.

Terms: One-fourth cash; balance in one, two, and three years' time.

For maps and further information, apply to

John C. Robertson, General Manager, Manchester, Va.

Sale conducted by A. J. BRADLEY & Co., Manchester, Va., my17 to 24.

For further information apply to W. O. Hardaway, office 305, Second street, Southwest, or to H. M. Darna, at office of Roanoke Trust, Loan and Safe Deposit Company, May 13-19

PROSPECTUS.

THE PORT ARANSAS COMPANY, CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS.

The Port Aransas Company has acquired some 32,000 acres of land, situated on the Corpus Christi Bay, (Gulf of Mexico), Texas. This land lies partly within and adjacent to the old town of Corpus Christi, and commands the entire deep water frontage of Aransas Pass. The Bay has 150 square miles of water, and is completely land-locked and protected from Gulf storms by Harbor and Mustang islands, the latter island reaching out from the main land into the Gulf like an arm, and is from ten to fifty feet above the highest tides ever known. This island contains 9,500 acres, and affords five miles of twenty-four feet deep water frontage. The Deep Water Terminal railroad will have its terminus at the extreme point of this island, thus affording admirable shipping facilities. The San Antonio and Aransas Pass railway and the Mexican National railroad, already in operation, have terminals at this point, and the Corpus Christi and South American railroad, connecting Corpus Christi with Brownsville, on the Rio Grande, now under construction, is a link in the great line traversing Mexico on opening up the Central American Republics. These roads give connection with the vast western territory of the United States and Mexico. In addition to the fine railroad facilities, this company possesses the most available, the only certain, deep water harbor on the Gulf of Mexico, south and west of the Mississippi river, and has a larger extent of territory, a larger population than is now tributary to any one seaport in the world. It is, in fact, with its unexcelled advantages of railroad and water transportation, the key of the commercial South.

THE CHARTER.

The Port Aransas Company was chartered by the Legislature of the State of Texas, for the purpose of constructing and operating a deep water channel from the Gulf of Mexico, at Aransas Pass, to Corpus Christi, and the construction, running and operating of docks and wharves in connection therewith, and to own, hold and dispose of real estate.

THE COMPANY.

The company is composed of eastern and western men of the highest integrity and financial standing. Col. E. H. Rogers, of New York, formerly of the Singer Sewing Machine company, is president; H. E. Chamberlain, ex-officio, the millionaire president of the Chamberlain Investment company, and of the Denver Chamber of Commerce, is first vice-president; W. V. Carroll, esq., of Wall Street, New York, is second vice-president; Perry Doddridge, esq., of Corpus Christi, the well known banker of Southwestern Texas, is treasurer, and R. W. Strayhorn, of Chief Justice Taylor, of the Supreme Court, Texas, is secretary and counsel.
